

Rules for the reading program:

Certificates are awarded for each of the four levels completed:

- 1) MEMBERS - 20 Books
- 2) STAR - 45 Books
- 3) TORCH - 75 Books
- 4) CENTURY - 100 Books

After reading the prescribed number of books at each level, from the chosen categories or Free Choice, a review of a minimum of 50 words must be written for each book and sent to the NJSFWC ESO Chairman.

The ESO Book Report Form to be used is available on the website or attached to the reading list, if purchased.

EPSILON SIGMA OMICRON (ESO)

Enlighten Your Own Pathway

GFWC and NJSFWC Education Community Service Program support ESO as an honorary educational society open to all club members.

It was established in 1928 by the Indiana Federation of Clubs and was incorporated as a national sorority as part of GFWC Education Department Special Projects.

Its purpose is:

- * to promote a commitment to life-long learning, self enrichment and personal growth
- * to stimulate reading and to establish a home library
- * to encourage the greater use of public libraries
- * to encourage the formation of and participation in book and discussion clubs
- * to encourage the pursuit of higher education by supporting women returning to school
- * to improve and develop study skills
