LOCAL WOMEN'S CLUB PLANTS TREES FOR ARBOR DAY

<<Insert Date>> <<Insert City Name, State Abbreviation>>— The <<Insert Club Name>> joined the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) in planting trees for Arbor Day.

The club <<Insert Project Details>>.

One of GFWC's Seven Grand Initiatives for its 2018-2020 Administration is for clubs to join together and plant 1,000 trees across the country in honor of Arbor Day. The holiday encourages communities to plant trees to benefit the environment. GFWC has a long history of conservation efforts, including being instrumental in the formation of several national parks.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is a unifying force, bringing together local women's clubs, with members dedicated to strengthening their communities and enhancing the lives of others through volunteer service. With nearly 80,000 members in affiliated clubs in every state and more than a dozen countries, GFWC members are community leaders who work locally to create global change by supporting the arts, preserving natural resources, advancing education, promoting healthy lifestyles, encouraging civic involvement, and working toward world peace and understanding.
