ARTS IN THE COMMUNITY

Art For Youth

- March is Youth Art Month. Sponsor a Youth Art Exhibit in your town. Develop a theme for the exhibit centered on a holiday, season or special day and display the entries in the town municipal building, local library, business or mall.
- Take children to a local nursing home or assisted living facility to do an art project with the residents.
- Teach a craft at a children's summer day camp.
- After reading a story from a book, have the children draw pictures about the story. Hang the pictures in the library, post office or town municipal building.

Fostering Community Art

- Add fun to projects to coordinate with other CSP chairmen to make things for their projects: tray favors for Meals-On-Wheels Home Life CSP], book marks for Read Across America [Education CSP], Days for Girls Kits [International Outreach CSP], scarves/hats for children [Advocates for Children CSP], craft kit bags for children [Domestic Violence], make wreaths for Wreaths Across America [Public Issues CSP], or items for the Special State Project.
- Ask community members of all ages to volunteer time at the local theatre or at community schools to assist in painting scenery and building sets. [Arts/Performing CSP]
- Decorate a float for a community parade.
- Take seniors/school children to a local college to see the latest Art Gallery exhibit.
- Ask a local artist to present a program at your club meeting and invite the public. [Communications CSP]
- Donate books about art, weaving, pottery, photography, or other media to local or school libraries.
- Sponsor an art show in your community for disabled artists of all ages. Work with Young Audiences of NJ or A.R.T.- Artistic Realization Technologies both based in Princeton or Arts Unbound located in Orange.
- Hold a flower pot painting craft event for children at a local farmer's market or flower show. [Conservation CSP]
- Decorate a hospital ward, adult and/or child center for a holiday.
- Plan club tours to local galleries, craft shows and museum special events such as the Morris Museum, Monmouth Museum, Noyes Museum of Art, Newark Museum, NJ Center for Visual Arts and the Princeton Art Museum.
- Work with other organizations to paint a mural on a building, retaining wall or a bridge truss in your town to beautify the area. [Community Improvement CSP]
- Organize an Art and Music event. Invite interested community members to come to a local park where they can set up their easels and spend the day painting, drawing or sketching. Have a picnic in the afternoon with everyone bringing a dish to share.
- Participate in "Faces Make Places" by inviting both children and adults to recognize important people in your community--postal workers, librarians, firefighters, school custodian, volunteers, parents, grandparents, etc. by creating a symbolic portrait of the individual that conveys a story about the work they do. Find a community space to display the art. Assemble the portraits to form a dynamic, collaborative art piece that celebrates the people in your community. Host an event to celebrate the art and the people represented in it.

Review the 2018-2020 GFWC Club Manual – Arts Section for additional project ideas and resources.
