WHY SHOULD WE HAVE A TRANSITION PLAN?

GFWC International, Region, State, County, District, Club officers, and Chairmen are preparing to conclude the 2018-2020 term in office. The 2020-2022 administration is excited and eager to start their adventure. As leaders a strong transition plan helps our members feel connected and involved. Here are a few tips and a sample checklist to help along the way.

Most important to a successful transition is planning. Create a structured process to ensure leadership continuity and to retain and develop knowledge and relationships in the future. A powerful succession plan focuses on ensuring the flow of information is open and concise for the new leadership.

Transition planning helps the current leaders “let go” by sharing the information. There’s no “easy” button for leaders, but those who have served long in positions they served in can face especially tough transitions. The leaders are proud of the accomplishments and feel very attached to the projects they leave.

No matter how long or well a leader has served, it is best for all clubwomen to have a plan for transferring knowledge and authority as well as relationship “ownership”. Somehow, all the stuff that’s stored only in his/her head must be accessed and captured. But how?

With A Leadership Transition Checklist

Your Club History

Leadership also includes transition our history. In keeping with the transition theme let's not forget to record our achievements, photos, and minutes just to mention a few items so incredibly important to our GFWC Club History. President's should also ask a member to act as the Club Historian and possibly interview the officers for a video record for your club archives.

LEADS, The Next Step

Congratulations! You are a 2020 LEADS Graduate!

The excitement of the day should be shared and carried forward with your State Presidents and Leadership Chairman when you return home. Here is a little checklist of things that if you haven't already done - you need to do as soon as you get back home:

1. Touch base with your State President about scheduling a State Leadership Workshop for all the members.
2. Work with the Leadership Chairman in developing the agenda and material for the Workshop.
3. Once the logistic information has been finalized send invitations with the date, time and place for the workshop to the Club Presidents to share with their members. to all the Sign up for News and Notes

This will help promote Leadership in your state for the next LEADS class and future Leaders as well.
