

Additional Education and Library Programs:

ESO (Epsilon Sigma Omicron)

ESO Chairman. Pat Trainor, 15 Oakwood Avenue, Glen Ridge, New Jersey 07029, 973 444 3843, or pattee217@aol.com.

Participate in ESO - The ESO program provides clubwomen with a structured reading program that is educational and stimulates a desire for self-improvement.

- During the 2020 – 2022 administration, each New Jersey clubwoman is challenged to read a total of 4 books during the club year.
- Join ESO to earn awards and certificates! Send your name, address, name of club and district, together with a check for $ 2.00 made to NJSFWC earmarked ESO and mail to ESO Chairman.
- Purchase an ESO Reading list from NJSFWC Headquarters for $2.00 or download a copy from the GFWC website. The reading list contains the procedural guidelines.
- Write and submit a brief report on each book read using the ESO Book Report Form or (NEW) go paperless and submit your book report online through the ESO Google Form link located on the NJFWC website under Materials>Education and Libraries.

Spelling Bee

NJSFWC Spelling Bee Chairman, Jennifer Tsigaras, 201 919 9136 or jbrechtbil@aol.com

- Sponsor a local event in January or February as a part of the annual NJSFWC 4th and 5th grade Spelling Bee contest. Information on how to conduct a Spelling Bee will be in the ALMANAC and online at www.njsfwc.org
- Consider making a donation of refreshments or contribute towards prizes for the District-level Spelling Bee contest in your district.

Girls Career Institute (GCI)

GCI Chairman: Mary Kat Tokar, tokar@njsfwc.org, (201) 320-8403

- Sponsor a high school girl who is completing her Junior year as a delegate to Girls' Career Institute. This "mini college experience" enables delegates to sample college life by living in a dorm with a roommate from another part of the state, eating in a dining hall, and attending lectures and workshops designed to teach leadership, self-empowerment and give an overview of interesting and often overlooked career choices.
