

New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs of GFWC

For IMMEDIATE Release

March 2021

Contact: Carole Speechley

(609) 368-5243

speechley@njsfwc.org

Clubwomen Attended Civic Engagement & Outreach Day

Members of (federated women's clubs in the Ramapo District) OR (the CLUB NAME, a member) of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs (NJSFWC) of GFWC attended, on Zoom, their first Civic Engagement & Outreach (CEO) Day. The Ramapo district is one of eight districts of the NJSFWC that has planned their own day with speakers of interest in their area for their members.

Speaking at the March 8th Ramapo District CEO meeting were Albert Evangelista representing the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT), Anthony Elia representing the Veteran's Home of Paramus, and Rose Bates representing the Center for United Methodist Aid to the Community (CUMAC). In addition to the speakers, the attendees watched a video about Passports and IDs from the Passaic County Clerk.

(Information about your club and it's contact information goes here, maybe a quote from your president about the CEO day)

The NJSFWC, a volunteer, community service organization, was founded in 1894. is headquartered on the Douglass College campus in New Brunswick. The NJSFWC founded the New Jersey College for Women in 1918. In 2019, the organization, with a membership of over 6300, reported almost 21,600 community service projects involving over 498,000 volunteer hours and $3.4 million in cash and in-kind donations. The NJSFWC is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC), which is headquartered in Washington, DC and is the largest and oldest women's volunteer community service organization in the world.

For more information about the NJSFWC and/or membership in a local club, visit www.njsfwc.org or call 732-249-5474.