The CLUB is a member of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs of GFWC (NJSFWC). In 2020, the New Jersey Clubs that reported indicated a total of 16,963 projects, 320,119 volunteer hours, and $2.3 million dollars in cash and in-kind donations. NJSFWC President Jan Hanson commented: "Even a Pandemic could not stop the work of the amazing New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs. Members continued to serve their community, sometimes changing their focus to helping those affected by the virus. Assisting others helped our members feel needed as they made a difference. We welcome others to join us in our efforts."

The NJSFWC, a volunteer, community service organization, was established in 1894, and also founded the New Jersey College for Women, now Douglass Residential College, in 1918. The NJSFWC is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC), which has their headquarters in Washington, DC and is the largest and oldest women's volunteer community service organization in the world.
