ARTS and CULTURE

Art For Youth

- March is National Youth Art Month. Submit a proclamation to your mayor in your local community.
- <https://www.arteducators.org/news/articles/10-youth-art-month-yam>
- Sponsor a Youth Art Exhibit in your town. Develop a theme for the exhibit centered on a holiday, season or special day and display the entries in the town municipal building, local library, business or mall.
- Take children to a local nursing home or assisted living facility to do an art project with the residents.
- Teach a craft at a children's summer day camp.
- After reading a story from a book, have the children draw pictures about the story. Hang the pictures in the library, post office or town municipal building.

Fostering Community Art

- Add fun to art projects to coordinate with other Community Service Project Chairmen to make things for their projects: tray favors for Meals-On-Wheels, bookmarks for Read Across America, Days for Girls Kits [DFG]- the kit components are washable pads (liners) and waterproof shields. These are sewn from brightly colored approved DFG absorbent fabrics and are placed, along with soap, zip lock bags, etc. into a drawstring bag. Members could make just the bags or the liners or shields or make scarves/hats for children and craft kit bags.
- Ask community members of all ages to volunteer time at the local theatre or at community schools to assist in painting scenery and building sets.
- Decorate a float for a community parade.
- Ask a local artist to present a program at your club meeting and invite the public.
- Donate books about art, weaving, pottery, photography, or other media to local or school libraries.
- Sponsor an art show in your community for disabled artists of all ages.
- Investigate grant funding by "Young Audiences -Arts for Learning in NJ and Eastern PA www.yanjep.org
- Team up with Artistic Realization Technologies (A.R.T.) based in Princeton or Arts Unbound located in Orange and Montclair.
- Hold a flowerpot painting craft event for children at a local farmer's market or flower show.
- Decorate a hospital ward, adult and/or child center for a holiday.
- Plan club tours to local art galleries, craft shows and museum special events such as the Morris Museum, Monmouth Museum, Noyes Museum of Art (Stockton University) Newark Museum, NJ Center for Visual Arts and the Princeton Art Museum.
- Work with other organizations to paint a mural on a building, retaining wall or a bridge truss in your town to beautify the area.
- UPCYCLE is the process of converting old or discarded materials into something useful and often beautiful.
- Organize an Art and Music event. Invite interested community members to come to a local park where they can set up their easels and spend the day painting, drawing or sketching. Have a picnic in the afternoon with everyone bringing a dish to share.
- Participate in "Faces Make Places" by inviting both children and adults to recognize important people in your community--postal workers, librarians, firefighters, school custodian, volunteers, parents, grandparents, etc. by creating a symbolic portrait of the individual that conveys a story about the work they do. Find a community space to display the art. Assemble the portraits to form a dynamic, collaborative art piece that celebrates the people in your community. Host an event to celebrate the art and the people represented in it.
